'A sensual and transcendent tale of first love: In the north of Italy Elio, a precocious 17-year-old spends his days playing classical music and reading. While Elio's sophistication and intellectual gifts suggest he is already adult, he still remains innocent, particularly about matters of the heart. One day, Oliver, a charming American scholar working on his doctorate arrives. Elio and Oliver discover the heady beauty of awakening desire over the course of a summer that will alter their lives forever.' – Rotten Tomatoes.

Nominated for 142 awards so far, including 11 awards at the Oscars, BAFTAs and Golden Globes, including Best Film at all three, this might also be the most effusively described film by the critics: 'One of the year's most romantic movies, and also one of the best' – Peter Howell, Toronto Star; 'A spellbinding, almost ecstatically beautiful movie that gains even more heft and meaning in its final transcendent moments' - Ann Hornaday, Washington Post, etc, etc.

The film, the director, Luca Guadagnino (who brought us the wonderful 'I am Love' in 2010), both of the leading actors - Armie Hammer and Timothée Chalamet - the screenplay and even the music are up for awards and the scenery of sunny, carefree Italy looks beautiful, so expect top quality everywhere.

The film is described as the third part in the Desire Trilogy by Guadagnino, after 'I am Love' and 'A Bigger Splash' (2015).
